DEPARTMENT ORGANIZATION ORDER SERIES		DATE OF ISSUANCE September 18, 1970	EFFECTIVE DATE September 20, 1970

SUBJECT

OFFICE OF TELECOMMUNICATIONS

SECTION 1. PURPOSE.

This order establishes the Office of Telecommunications and assigns functions thereto.

SECTION 2. ESTABLISHMENT.

.01 The Office of Telecommunications (the "Office") is hereby established as a primary operating unit of the Department of Commerce. The Office shall be headed by a Director who shall report and be responsible to the Assistant Secretary for Science and Technology. The Director shall be assisted by a Deputy Director who shall perform the functions of the Director during his absence.

.02 The constituent operating unit of the Department titled "Office of Telecommunications," in existence pursuant to Department Organization Order 30-5 of July 25, 1969, is hereby abolished and its functions, funds, personnel, property, and records are transferred to the Office of Telecommunications herein established, except that its functions, funds, personnel, property and records concerned with the assignment and utilization of radio frequencies within the Department are transferred to the Environmental Science Services Administration (ESSA).

.03 The Institute for Telecommunication Sciences in the Environmental Science Services Administration is transferred to the Office, together with its functions, funds, personnel, property and records.

.04 The Assistant Secretary for Administration, in consultation with the Assistant Secretary for Science and Technology, shall determine the funds, personnel, property and records transferred by this order, and shall arrange the effectuation of such transfers.

SECTION 3. DELEGATION OF AUTHORITY.

.01 Pursuant to the authority vested in the Secretary of Commerce by law and subject to such policies and directives as the Secretary of Commerce or the Assistant Secretary for Science and Technology may prescribe, the Director is hereby delegated the authority vested in the Secretary of Commerce under:

a. 15 U.S.C. 272 (f)(12) and (13), which relate to the transmission of radio waves and the distribution of information about such transmissions, as applicable to the functions assigned herein;

b. Section 13 of Executive Order 11556 of September 4, 1970, which pertains to performing research and analysis and other functions in support of the Director of the Office of Telecommunications Policy; and

c. Other legislation as applicable for performing the functions assigned in this order.

.02 The Director may redelegate his authority to any employee of the Office subject to such conditions in the exercise of such authority as he may prescribe.

SECTION 4. FUNCTIONS.

The Office shall perform the following functions:

Approved For Release 2001/11/01 : CIA-RDP72-00337R000300130012-9

a. Acquire, analyze and disseminate data and perform research in general on the description and prediction of electromagnetic wave propagation and the conditions which affect such propagation, on the nature of electromagnetic noise and interference, and on methods for the more efficient use of the electromagnetic spectrum for telecommunication purposes; prepare and issue predictions of electromagnetic wave propagation conditions and warnings of disturbances in those conditions; and conduct economic analysis related to telecommunications;

b. Conduct research and analysis in particular, under the policy guidance of the Director of the Office of Telecommunications Policy, on radio propagation, radio systems characteristics, and operating techniques affecting the utilization of the radio spectrum in coordination with specialized, related research and analysis performed by other Federal agencies in their areas of responsibility;

c. Perform analysis, engineering and administrative functions, including the maintenance of necessary files and data bases, responsive to the needs of the Director of the Office of Telecommunications Policy in the performance of his responsibilities for the management of the radio spectrum;

* [d. Conduct technical and economic research upon request to provide information and alternatives required by the Director of the Office of Telecommunications Policy;

* [e. Conduct research and analysis in the general field of telecommunication sciences in support of other Government agencies as required and in response to specific requests from the Director of the Office of Telecommunications Policy;

* [f. Conduct such other activities as may be required by the Director of the Office of Telecommunications Policy to support him in the performance of his functions; and

* [g. Provide advisory services in telecommunications to Federal agencies and to agencies of State and local governments.

SECTION 5. SUPPORT SERVICES.

The Assistant Secretary for Administration, in consultation with the Assistant Secretary for Science and Technology, shall arrange for other organizations of the Department to provide, as appropriate, specified personnel, budget, finance, and other administrative support services to the Office.

SECTION 6. EFFECT ON OTHER ORDERS.

.01 This order supersedes Department Organization Order 30-5 (formerly DO 14), dated July 25, 1969.

.02 Department Organization Orders 30-1A (formerly DO 2-A) and 30-1B, pertaining to ESSA, and Department Organization Order 10-1 (formerly DO 177), pertaining to the Assistant Secretary for Science and Technology, are hereby constructively amended to reflect the actions of this order.
